

Dr. Solomon Kemoi Cheboi profile

Dr. Solomon Kemoi Cheboi is a lecturer in Mama Ngina University College, department of Nursing and Clinical studies, school of health sciences. He has Doctor of Philosophy in health management (Kenyatta University), MSc. Community health and Development (Great Lakes University of Kisumu) and Bachelor of Science in Community health and development (Great Lakes University of Kisumu). Dr. Cheboi also hold Higher Diploma(s) in health Management and Administration and Medical virology (Kenya Medical Training College) and a diploma in Medical Laboratory science (Kenya Medical Training College). He serves as a part-time lecturer in the Department of Health Management and Informatics at Kenyatta University, where he teaches, mentors, and supervises postgraduate students, in addition to being an external examiner for the University of Nairobi. Previously, Cheboi, served as a Senior Research Scientists at the National Museums of Kenya and consulted for African Medical and Research Foundation (AMREF), Population Services Kenya (PSI/K), Girl child network, Global Alliance on Nutrition (GAIN) and Action Against Hunger Somalia. He had published 21 articles in peer reviewed journals, convened 3 workshops/conferences, presented 6 conference papers, attended 10 scientific conferences, produced 1 main stream media outputs and 4 blogs. Cheboi, has won research grants totaling to USD 21,2130 and being the principal investigator in 3 projects. He serves as a reviewer for multiple journals, including PLOS ONE, BioMed Central (BMC), the Ethiopian Journal of Health Sciences, and Sage Journals. He is passionate to transformative qualitative and quantitative research, Monitoring and evaluation of population healthcare interventions, indigenous palliative care, health management and system strengthening initiatives, one health and behavioural change co-creation programs.